TO THE CLASS OF 1982 OF THE AUSTINE SCHOOL:

Graduation is a moment in one's life at which to pause and reflect on the achievements recorded to date. You all ri deserve accolades for the courage and determination that have brought you this far. All of us are very proud of what have achieved.

But graduation is also a time when people begin to look ahead at what they want to do with their lives, and as you that please know that you have our best wishes for success in whatever endeavors you pursue.

On behalf of all Vermonters, my congratulations to each of you on this happy occasion.

Sincerely,

June 1982

To the Graduates of Austine School:

There are certain days in our lives that never loose their importance. One of these is the day that we graduate from high school. Twenty years from now, you will still look back on this day as a special time in your life, as an important turning point.

I congratulate you for having met the requirements that allow you to graduate and to add this important day to your lives.

Not only do I want to congratulate you for this achievement, I also want to convey my good wishes for the future. The decisions you make about what to do in the months ahead will have a profound effect on your lives. This is a time to stretch yourselves to the limit, to reach for the stars, to think big, and dream the impossible dream. Go for the best at this point in your lives. You can always settle for less later. If college is a possibility, pursue it with vigor. Consider all the options available and settle only for the best.

The most successful people usually have clear goals when they are your age. So, if your goals are not clear, I encourage you to spend as much time as necessary coming up with some goals which make you feel good about yourself and which make the future appear inviting.

Again, I congratulate you and my best wishes.

Most sincerely,

Dedication

This year we present the Austine yearbook to a hardworking teacher. He has done many things to help Austine become a better school. We are proud of him and we know he is proud of Austine. His name fits him perfectly: Philip Proudfoot Palmer. We are proud of Mr. Palmer for many reasons. He has worked very hard on many projects at The Austine School: Red Pines Forest, Nature Trail, Blood Donation Program in Brattleboro, Student Council, and Jr. NAD.

Mr. Palmer has helped many students, too. He helps order flowers for the Jr.-Sr. Prom. Many students and graduates have stayed overnight at his home.He helps students with individual projects, like making grinders.

Mr. Palmer started teaching at Austine in 1967. He is married and has two children. At home he is a good husband, good father, a good bee-keeper and most of all a good person.

Mr. Palmer is Austine's quiet helper. We thank him for his help. We are proud of Philip Proudfoot Palmer. We hope he is proud from head to "foot" of this dedication.

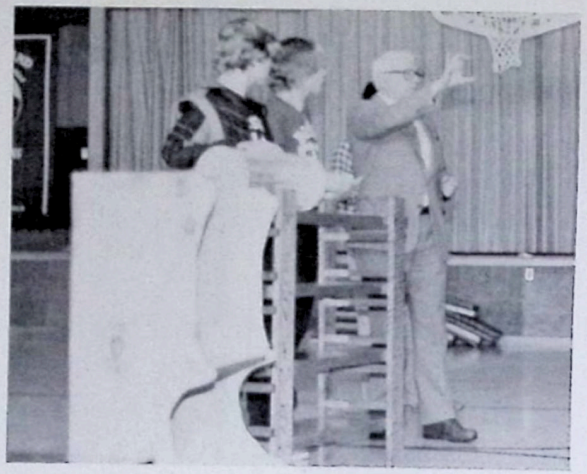
Administration



Dear Seniors,

You each can step forward, with pride, to receive your diploma on Commencement Day. It is your day to be recognized for your achievements and you should so enjoy the wonderful accomplishment in the company of your friends, family, and our staff.

We are proud of you as you join a long line of graduates of Austine of past years who stepped forward to accept the challenge ahead. Success has been theirs and we wish the same for you.

You can be as proud of Austine as we are of you, for together it gave you success.

Our best hopes go with you,

The "Freedom of Expression"

Close Up

During the week of March 15th, three Austine students attended the Close Up program in Washington, D.C. Bryan Watson, Lori Collett and Steve Gorman were accompanied by Don Powers, this year's Close Up coordinator.

They traveled to and from Washington via Amtrak, and stayed at a hotel in the D.C. area. Also attending the program were hearing students and hearing impaired students from across the nation.

Close Up is a week-long government studies program for high school students and teachers that provides a chance to learn more about the federal government and its relationship to the community. Funds for the trip are provided in part by the Close Up Foundation, the Austine School and the students themselves.

During the week, the students attended numerous workshops and seminars on various aspects of the government: executive, judiciary, energy, defense, and many others. Each day is carefully planned, and the students were prepared for each event by the Close Up staff. All the students were separated into groups of about 20 per group, and each group had a Close Up staff member as a leader. Each student remained in one group for the week, which enabled them to make many close friends. While each day was scheduled with many interesting activities, there was time for individual touring, museum visiting and sight-seeing.

The impressions made and the facts learned during the week are indescribable and innumerable. It is an exhausting and thrilling adventure that will continue to pay benefits for years to come.

Library Committee

The Austine School Library Committee is composed of ten staff members from different areas of the school.

Areas represented on the committee are as follows: Administration, Dr. Stevens; language, Elliott Igleheart, Math, Cal Heile; Science, Phil Palmer; Social Studies, James Woodruff; Pre-school, Betty Igleheart; Lower School, Ida Hutchins or Anne Bolte; Middle School, Linda Ruggles; Vocational, John Ridgway; and Library, John Enola.

The committee meets once a month to review and act upon the various items brought before it for consideration. All library or audio visual materials must be approved by the committee before purchase.

Acquisitions investigated, tested and approved by the committee over the years have included our television camera, video tape recorder, and monitor. A purchase such as this required a great deal of time and study by the committee before permission was granted for purchase.

All new books, magazines, movie and audio equipment, etc., receive this same careful scrutiny by the committee before they are allowed to become part of the library or audiovisual center.

The library committee performs a valuable service as it makes certain that only those items are purchased which will best serve our students.

Drivers Education

Howard North

Driver Education is offered to all students in their Junior year. The students meet twice each week in the fall from Sept. to Nov. In the Spring from March to June. They meet once each week for class and practice driving.

The students must successfully pass a written test to obtain a learner's permit. This test is given by the State of Vermont. The students then must drive a minimum of 8 hours to complete the course. Depending upon age requirements in their home state, the students may then apply for a permanent license.

Vocational Rehabilitation

Charles Tummino,
Vocational Rehabilitation Counsellor

Vocational Rehabilitation (V.R.) is a state office. Counselors work at the V.R. V.R. helps people get jobs. V.R. helps people who have physical problems.

V.R. helps deaf people get jobs. Why? Because employers (bosses where you work) might not understand deaf people. Employers might not understand what deaf people can do. The V.R. counselor teaches employers about deaf people.

Also, the V.R. counselor helps deaf people get ready for work. What does "getting ready" mean? It means: Knowing the job you want, having skills to do a job, learning how to find a job, having a good work attitude, understanding rules at work, and learning how to be responsible.

Some Austine School students go to work after they graduate. Some Austine School students go to college or to a vocational school because they want more job skills. College or vocational schools cost a lot of money. V.R. can help pay a small amount of the cost. Students and parents also pay for part of the cost. Students may also apply for financial aid (money help) at the college or vocational schools.

The main goal of V.R. is to help people get good jobs and live independently.

PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

My first year at The Austine School as School Psychologist has been both an interesting and challenging one. I really enjoyed working with the students here and I am looking forward to working with more students in the near fu have to thank both students and staff for making this year a memorable one.

A special thanks to many of the seniors who often went out of their way to make me feel so at home.

Hearing Center

Once each year, every student comes to the Hearing Center for a hearing test and hearing aid checkup.

Sandra Drake, Secretary

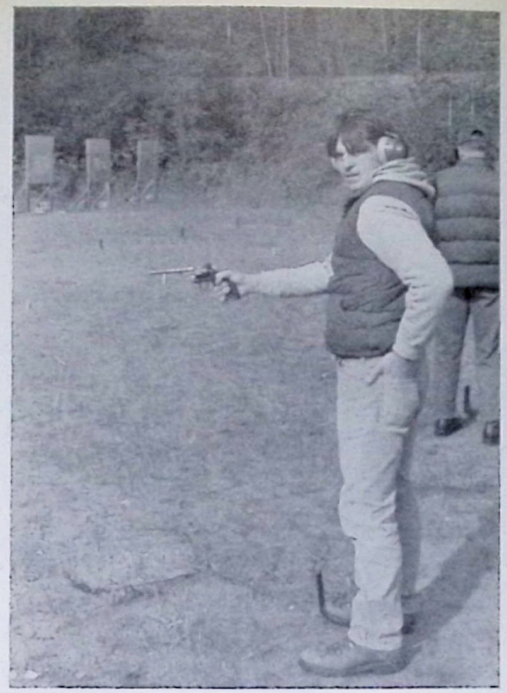
The audiologist tests each hearing aid to be sure it is working properly.

Then the student listens to sounds and words to see which ones he hears and understands. He can also watch Jim's face to see how much more he can understand by speech-reading.

Jim Bombicino, Audiologist

Bryan Watson and Jon Lemieux, Forestry — Welding

In the area of Forestry, Jonathan Lemieux and Bryan Watson learned the operation and maintenance of forest, conservation and recreational equipment such as chain saws, crawlers, tractors and small engines. Woodlot and outside land laboratory experiences are an integral part of the program. Outdoor experiences included such areas as drainage projects, logging, landscaping, tree identification, and Christmas tree sales.



Steve Gorman, Law Enforcement

East Middlebury, Vt.

LORI MARIE COLLETT — She has been active in Student Council. Was on the Varsity Girls Basketball Squad for four years. Boy! Is she the right person to be starring in "PRIVATE BENJAMIN?" She is very absent-minded . . . Always losing things, even her own room! Dr. Stevens thinks this is a true story: She rode her bike to town, chained it to a post while she went to the movie, came out of the movie, forgot her bike, walked to school, noticed her bike was gone, went to Dean Fish and threatened to sue Austine School because someone stole her bike — which is still chained to the post! Plans to attend Gallaudet College in Washington, D.C.

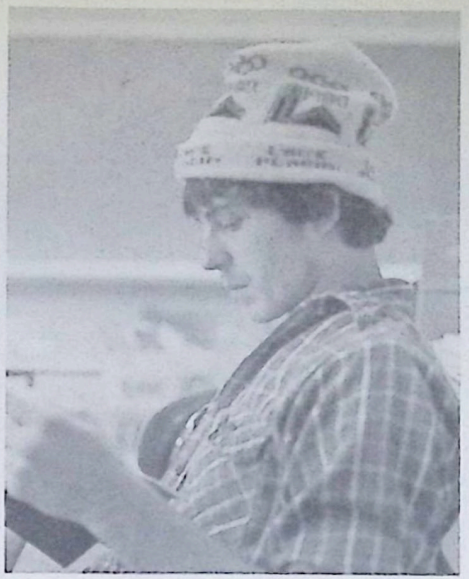
Michelle Ann Sarah GIGLIO

East Boston, Mass.

MICHELLE ANN SARAH GIGLIO — A Varsity Cheerleader Squad member, on Student Council in her junior year . . . Everytime she wanted to go out with someone, she asked herself this — "Who should I take out? Stevie? . . . No, mmm, Jimmie? . . . Naw . . . Louie, mmm — Nope . . ." Sometimes she has to flip a quarter to pick! Loves to wear old-fashioned floppy legged blue jeans . . . they make her look like she's gaining weight. Undecided about where to go after graduation.



To Shawna,
I hope that you keep yourself out of trouble, good luck.

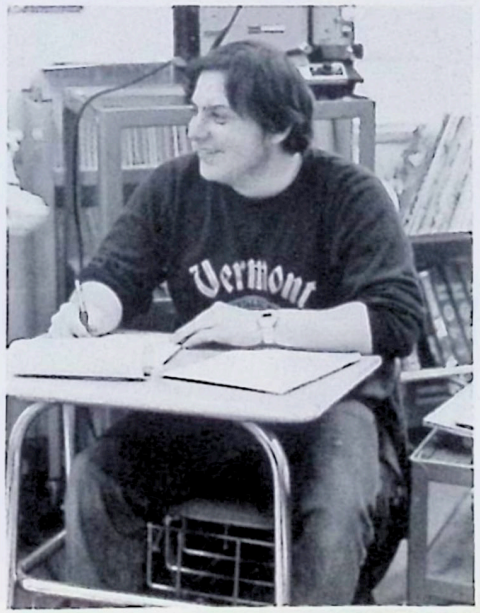
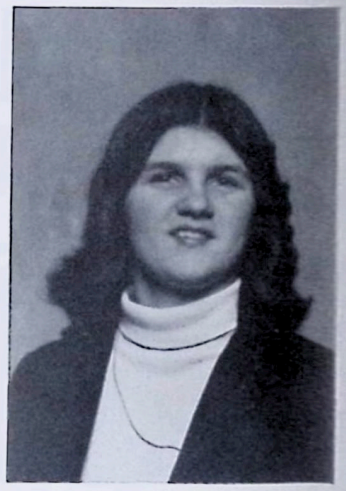
JONATHAN PEABODY LEMIEUX — A member of the Future Farmers of America for 3 years, a FFA sentinel for the Brattleboro Chapter at B.U.H.S. this year . . . Believes he was the confederate general STONEWALL Jackson . . . Wants to set up a bivouac on top of the Austine hill! Plans to go to Gallaudet . . . Bet Jon would want to set foot on the Virginian soil that Ol' Stonewall trod upon.



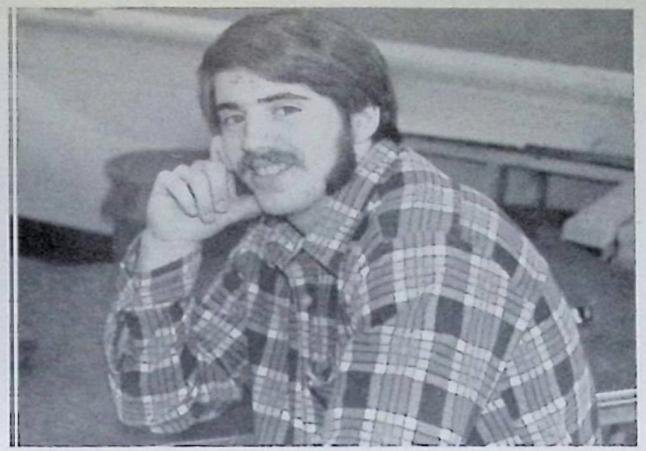
Berlin, N. H.

Elizabeth Arlene McALLISTER



Brattleboro, Vt.

ELIZABETH ARLENE McALLISTER — A quiet student, always working hard. She must be lucky to live in Brattleboro, VT. Talks too much. Signs too much. Comes to school early. Stays late. Wants to become "Miss Austine." Hangs around school too much on "weekends," (of course we do know she lives in Brattleboro!), basketball games, proms, and parties. Can't get her to go home, because she is home on Brattleboro soil! Liz plans to work after graduation.



STEVEN MOSHER — Hooked himself to "Debbie A." In love with Sweetheart Plastics. "Monster" . . . Always making sure there are no spiders inside his moustache before he meets girls. Favorite classes are math and language. Wants to teach English and Geometry. Plans to work for Sweetheart Plastics Company in Massachusetts.

Halloween Sports Night

Halloween Sports Night was a night of excitement, competition, creativity, and fun. Each high school class (Sr., Jr., Soph., Fresh/Prep.) competed against each other in games, costumes, skits, and class murals. Each class picked a theme for the evening and wore costumes, prepared a mural and performed a 3-minute skit based on that class theme. Judges rated and scored the above categories and combined those scores with the game score. The six games played were volleyball, earthball, egg toss, pyramid races, obstacle course, and tug-of-war. After all the fun and excitement was over the totals were as follows: 1st place — Juniors (Royal Wedding); 2nd place — Seniors (Bay City Bombers); 3rd place — Soph. (Roaring 20's), and 4th place — Prep/Fresh. (Gang).

Varsity Soccer

The Varsity Soccer team experienced another tough season this year. We won only three games while losing ten. Having lost four starters last year to graduation, we are in the process of rebuilding our team. Many of our games were close ones, especially with the schools on our level.

In the New England Tournament hosted by the Rhode Island School, Austine placed second overall. We won our opening game against The American School from Hartford 1 to 0. This victory put us into the final against defending champion Rhode Island. Rhode Island defeated us to successfully defend their championship status. We look forward to meeting them next year, hopefully with different results. Two of our players received special mention at the tournament. Bobby Boggess was chosen best goalie and Tom Byrnes was chosen as the best defender for the tournament.

All of our players deserve special mention. We certainly miss our graduating seniors Steve Mosher, John Russett, and Steve Gorman. Fortunately we have some strong returning lettermen in Bryan Watson, Tom Byrnes, Kevin Hopkins, Bobby Boggess, David Muise, and Steve Regan. Hopefully these players will lead our team to greater successes next year.

Boys' Varsity Basketball

The 1981-82 Varsity Basketball team again went through a long hard season since finishing 4th in the Vt. State Championship in 1980. The Arrows had a record of 5-16 in 1982. This year we played against many strong teams and many boys played their first year on the Varsity squad. Leading scorers were Kevin Hopkins with 374 points followed by Tom Byrnes with 301 points. Freshman James Clark and Sophomores Steve Regan, Creighton King and David Muise have adjusted well to varsity level competition. They played well and should help produce a strong team along with Tom Byrnes and Kevin Hopkins who will be returning next year as seniors. Steve Mosher is the only senior of the first five this year. Steve has shown himself to be a fine player this year.

The team finished 7th in the ESDAA Tourney, playing well together in the games. The team won the trophy for outstanding sportsmanship. Tom Byrnes made the all-tourney 2nd team.

We are looking forward to a better basketball season next year as four of the starting five return and some promising J.V.'s join the team.

Boys' J.V. Basketball

The Austine Junior Varsity Basketball team had a long hard season with a record of 4 and 11. Many players were inexperienced and had to adjust quickly to the junior varsity level. The team did improve steadily with each game. Increased court maturity, teamwork, and improved fundamentals proved to be the areas of greatest improvement. Players like Creighton King, James Gregoire, Brian Desautels, Steve St.Germain and Dennis Barbush provided the team with a solid nucleus, demonstrating leadership and sound play. I look forward to these boys adding additional strength to next year's Varsity squad.

Some of the returning players to Junior Varsity will be Brian Quinlan, George Lareau and Jeff Stevens. These boys really improved as the season progressed and showed outstanding promise for next year.

All the boys have been encouraged to attend summer camp in the hope that they continue to improve and prepare for the 1982/83 season.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

The lady Arrows became stronger and improved their ability to work together as a team throughout the season. They tried very hard to play well during the games. Sometimes their games were very exciting; sometimes funny things happened; most of the time the girls just played hard and tried their best.

This year Shawna Curtsinger was a new member and it was a good experience for her to play basketball. She enjoyed it. We'll lose three good players, Madonna Coburn, Debbie Ashline and Lori Collett, next year. We will miss them. They were a tremendous contribution to our team.

I was pleased and impressed with the girls' cooperation in their team work. I enjoyed working with them in my first experience as a coach.

Cheerleaders

Patiently waiting for new uniforms, hosting the 1982 Eastern States for the Deaf Basketball Tournament, and keeping up with a busy schedule were part of the experience for our cheerleaders this year. We have met many new people and learned a lot this past year. We hope to continue improving our skills next season. Remember: "We are number one!" "Smile!" "Oh, no! We left Diana at school!"

Boys' Jr. High Basketball

The Junior High Boys Basketball Team finished the season without a win, but a few close games toward the season's end (one, a disappointing overtime loss) provided a lot of excitement for the squad. Many of the boys were playing organized hoop for the first time. We stressed fundamentals of the game and developing skills. Each member of the team showed marked progress in strength and in their on-court abilities during the season. All enjoyed being part of Vermont/New Hampshire League Competition. The Austine Jr. High Basketball Team will be looking forward to a new season in '82-'83 when this year's gained experience should mean a better record and a confident club.

This year's Squad included;

Lyman Lawyer, Ronnie Marsh, Stanley Sanders, Jerry Thomas, Brad Hammond, Mickey Heath, Tony Duprete, Kevin Pillsbury, and George Lareau (missing from the picture). Coaches were Doug Newton and Harold O'Connell.

Midget Basketball

Midget basketball was designed to introduce to the Austine elementary students the fundamentals and game concepts of basketball. Thirty-six students age seven through eleven participated in this program. The program allows the younger students to experience the game of basketball while having fun and interacting with the high school students. Both the game officials and coaches were high school male and female basketball players. Lower baskets, a smaller basketball and rule modifications all helped make the midget basketball program a success.

Student Council

Student Council activities began this year with student body elections in the fall. The student body elected the president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer of the new council. Then each of the high school classes elected a representative to the council. Finally the new council met to elect their advisors from the staff. The members were as follows:

President — John Russett
Vice President — Debbie McKinney
Secretary — Debbie Ashline
Treasurer — Gary LaFrenier
Senior Representative — Lori Collett
Junior Representative — Debbie Barbush
Sophomore Representative — JoEllen Smith
Freshman Representative — Jimmy Clark
Staff Advisors — Mr. Harold Potter

Two special committees planned most of our activities for the year. One was the Social Activities Committee. The other was the Service Activities Committee. The social group planned games, dances, parties, and management of the student snack bar. The service group planned projects to earn money for three charities: the Brattleboro Christmas Stocking, African Schools for the Deaf, and C.A.R.E. Our projects earned about $300 for charity.

Boy Scouts

The Austine Boy Scout Troop #471 was chartered in January1982. The Scouts have been busy learning about scouting. They started learning about knot work and played games using them. We ate supper one Tuesday night during the winter in the Austine woods. The Troop first made their tin foil dinners and then cooked the meal on the fire they built. In April, Troop #471 earned a second place ribbon at the annual Boy Scout Show at Brattleboro High School. I know the #471 scouts learned a lot about scouting at this event. In May at the District Camporee, all the Troops in the District gather to show their scouting skill in a series of games and competitions. This was our first camping trip.

Stanley Sanders earned the Troop's first Progress award and has earned 2 skill awards. Leo Baker earned the Troop's first skill award. I am sure that next year will be an action packed year for Troop #471. We all are proud of our new Troop and our new Troop flag.

Cub Scouts

The Cub Scouts had a variety of activities. This year, the Cub Scouts took many trips — to a blacksmith, to a firehouse, to a sugarhouse, and to see their former Den Leader give her baby a bath. They made Christmas presents, cooked pizza and stew, and went sliding and hiking. The highlights of the year were the beginning of the year cook-out and the end of the year overnight camping trip.

The Junior Girl Scouts had nine members this year. The Elementary Girls' supervisors, Mary Waldvogel and Charlene Gregoire took turns helping out at weekly meetings.

The girls participated in a Fun Day with other Brattleboro Girl Scout troops in October. In November, new Juniors Stacey Rutledge and Michele Sanborn received their pins at the Investiture-Rededication ceremony. The Juniors helped others by putting together UNICEF boxes for the children in the Brattleboro area to collect money on Halloween. They also performed two original skits for residents at the Thompson House.

The Junior Scouts had fun this winter skating, sliding, and camping. The girls at camp went cross country skiing. The Juniors also learned a game from Japan and taught it to other Girl Scouts at the Girl Scouts' 70th birthday party. They divided into two groups to work onthe Personal Health and Arts Dabbler badges. The girls finished their year with a Court of Awards and Bridging ceremony in which Debbie, Donna-Lynn, Tanya, Julie, Elaina, Lori, and Rose "bridged" to Cadette Scouting.

Brownies

The Austine Brownie Troop had an active year. In October they joined other area Girl Scouts for a Fun Day at Memorial Park. In December, the girls made and painted Christmas ornaments for their parents and for residents of the Thompson House. They also entertained the Thompson House residents with a Brownie play. The Troop baked Brownies and made hot chocolate in the Home Ec. Room, and had fun sliding. They sold Girl Scout cookies to local residents, then had supper at McDonald's. The Brownies worked on a sewing badge for which they sewed bags and made sit-upons to use on a hike. They learned about cooperation at home and at school.

In March the girls participated in the Girl Scout week celebration. They learned a game from Germany to share with other area Girl Scouts, and learned games and dances from different countries from other troops. This was followed by ice skating at the local rink with the Austine Junior Troop. The Brownies also joined the Juniors and other Brattleboro scouts at the annual Camporee.

Cadettes

Austine Cadettes and leaders May Lou Brozena and Deb Shively had a full program this year. Activities included horseback riding in the Fall, participation in Girl Scout Week festivities, and a seaside camping weekend in May. The members worked on the Child Care Badge and the Printing Badge. They also delivered May baskets to a local nursing home.

Jump Rope for Heart

On March 29, 1982 the physical education department held the first annual "Jump Rope for Heart" Day. "Jump Rope for Heart" is a national event for students to promote physical education and cardiovascular health. This event also raises funds to help the Heart Association fight against heart disease and stroke. Participating in this jump roping event were 75 individuals, including elementary and high school students, teachers and houseparents. The jumpers recruited over 300 sponsors and raised a grand total of $904.70 for the Heart Association. This was an excellent donation to the Heart Association and all the individuals participating in the "Jump for Heart" should be very proud of their accomplishment.
